

Federalism

Our Federalism

- ❁ Washington DC/ “The Feds” / National Government/ “G men/women” / “Up on the Hill/ White House, etc.
- ❁ States- Sacramento
- ❁ Neither level can independently change the basic division of power
- ❁ Each Government operates through its own agencies and has its own set of officials

How different are State systems?

- ❁ Gambling is legal in Nevada
- ❁ Can't buy a mixed drink in Utah
- ❁ State operated busses pick up all children public and private school in New Jersey
- ❁ Nebraska has a one house legislature
- ❁ North Carolina's Governor has no veto
- ❁ North Dakota requires no voter registration

Three Geographic Forms of Government

Where is the power?

Why do we like Federalism?

- _ It's wasteful and inefficient
- _ Checks Tyranny- think 1776, and factions
- _ Unity with Individuality- we're big
- _ Experimentation
- _ Local government is good

How are Powers Divided?

The Federal Government has Delegated Powers

```
graph TD; A[The Federal Government has Delegated Powers] --> B[EXPRESSED POWERS
Written into the Constitution.]; A --> C[IMPLIED POWERS
Such as the "necessary and proper" powers]; A --> D[INHERENT POWERS
All governments must have these];
```

EXPRESSED
POWERS
Written into the Constitution.

IMPLIED POWERS
Such as the “necessary and proper” powers

INHERENT
POWERS
All governments must have these

Some of these powers are EXCLUSIVE powers

National Supremacy

- _ McCulloch v. Maryland - 1819
- _ Necessary and Proper (Elastic Clause)

The Supreme Law of the Land

- ❁ Supremacy Clause

- ❁ A ladder of laws

 - ❁ THE CONSTITUTION

 - ❁ Acts of Congress & Treaties

 - ❁ State Constitutions

 - ❁ State Statutes

 - ❁ City, County, Local Charters and ordinances

National Obligations to States

- ❁ A Republican Form

- ❁ Protection

 - ❁ invasion

 - ❁ Violence

- ❁ Admission of New States

 - ❁ Rules

Cooperative Federalism

Funding- Grants

Categorical Grants

Lots of strings attached

Trillions spent

Block Grants

Fewer strings

Project Grants

For experiments and special Projects

Unfunded Mandates- Do it or lose the dough

Uncooperative Federalism

Interstate Relations

❁ Interstate Compacts

- ❁ Treaties between states
- ❁ with consent of Congress

❁ Full Faith and Credit - State to State

- ❁ Every state must accept all state's civil laws
- ❁ records (deeds, registrations, wills etc.)
- ❁ Judicial Proceedings -judgment, decrees

❁ Exceptions

- ❁ Criminal Law
- ❁ Divorce (quickie divorces)

❁ Extradition

❁ Privileges and Immunities

- ❁ non-discrimination
- ❁ reside, trade, rent, own, marry, etc.

❁ Reasonable Discrimination

- ❁ residency (waiting periods)
- ❁ licenses
- ❁ voting
- ❁ tuition