

Planning Document: The Reforms at the Turn of the Century

Partner A:	Partner B:
------------	------------

1. Highlight which reform you will cover in depth in your newspaper, for each topic. Should have a total of 4, 1 in each column.

Working Conditions	Politics	Business	Environment
-8 hour work day -child labor banned -women's minimum wage -workers compensation laws for injuries on the job	-citizen initiatives -referendum -recall -16th amendment -17th amendment -19th amendment	-Meat Inspection Act -Pure Food and Drug Act -Sherman Antitrust Act -Clayton Antitrust Act -Interstate Commerce Commission -Federal Reserve Act	-creation of national forests -government regulated usage of natural resources

2. How many advertisements will your newspaper include? (circle your answer)
 1 2
3. Which reforms will you create an advertisement for?
 a.
 b.
4. Which reform will you write articles about? (minimum of 2)
 a.
 b.
 c.
5. You must write one article that is critical of a reform and propose an alternative solution. Which reform will you do this for?
 a.
6. Label who will be responsible for each reform in the chart at the top of the page. You can use color coding or initials to label the chart.
7. Research: Begin researching your reforms and include links and information in the chart below:

Reform	Research	Source Info (Link)

--	--	--